

risk management: fundamentals & core principles

a short course from risk solutions

this practical course, delivered by individuals who are both experienced risk management practitioners and inspirational trainers and educators, will equip you with the knowledge and skills to protect and strengthen your organisation to meet today's challenges

“all life involves some risk, and any innovation brings risk as well as reward - so the priority must be to manage risks better.”

Tony Blair

www.risksol.co.uk - for more information

risk solutions

leave nothing to chance learn about :

- the arguments for good risk management: the benefits, and the costs of getting it wrong
- the language of risk
- the risk management landscape:
 - types of risk
 - what different people mean by risk management
 - key standards and guidance, how these differ and underpinning core principles
 - legal and regulatory perspectives.
- how to embed risk management effectively in your organisation
- the ISO 31000 'acid tests' for good risk management
- the risk management process and lifecycle
- risk appetite and tolerability of risk
- risk identification and analysis techniques:
(e.g. FTA, ETA, HAZOP, FMEA)
- new developments in risk management course structure

day 1

module 1 – risk management awareness

- different types of risk
- the risk management process
- the arguments for enterprise wide risk management
- terminology and definitions from ISO 31000 and other standards .

module 2 – risk management tools & techniques

- Introduction to the main risk identification and risk analysis techniques
- communicating and presenting the outputs of risk analyses.
- risk management decision frameworks:
 - strategies for management and/or control
 - tolerability of risk
 - benefit cost analysis.

day 2

module 3 – risk management perspectives

- different stakeholders
- risk management standards
- imperatives for effective risk management:
 - legal and regulatory – safety, product and contract liability and duties of directors
 - big ticket risk issues – safety, costs, environment, legal, people, IT, regulatory change, supply chain module 4 – embedding risk management

- successfully embedding and supporting ongoing risk management (ISO 31000, with additional views from other standards)
- ISO 31000's 'acid tests' for good risk management
- critically appraising existing risk management processes
- stakeholder perceptions about risk.

who should attend:

- managers and risk managers wanting to develop risk management awareness
- anyone who needs a concise overview of the issues and accepted approaches

why attend:

practical advice from experienced practitioners will help you gain a real appreciation of how risk management can help:

- strengthen your organisation against threats
- better enable you to grasp opportunities
- improve decision making in the face of risk and uncertainty joining course dates in London, Birmingham and Warrington are posted on our web-site: www.risksol.co.uk.

alternatively we can run the course from your own offices for company specific groups.

prices start from £385 per delegate plus VAT.

contact: Patricia Wilkinson tel: 01925 413984

e-mail: enquiries@risksol.co.uk

“Excellent blend of presentation, discussion and practical exercises to test learning.”

course attendee